Re: Su Rudy Designs, Inc.

FEI Number: 59-2522529

To Whom it May Concern,

Recently I discovered that a few checks that were sent out at the same time never reached their destination, including the one I sent to the State to renew my corporation. Included were a local cable television bill and a mortgage payment. This is extremely distressing since I am always on time as you may see in the history of my corporation form about 1985. I also am experiencing a very slowdown in my business due to the economy. I am divorced now and am the sole income earner. My Interior Decorating business is barely making expenses now and any additional monies are not in my tight budget. So I appeal to you whole heartily that I cannot afford to pay the additional $400.00. I am inclosing an new check since the original one I sent was lost in the mail. Please find the way to excuse this error on the fault of the US mail and I will in the future check with your office shortly after I send my check to see if it was received.

I am a law abiding taxpayer and citizen and understand the importance of imposing penalties. I ask you again, please find a way that I am not penalized.

Thank you for you attention in this matter and sincerely,

Susan L. Rudy
