Re: Marine Research Corporation, H54623

Dear Sirs,

We have just had a visit from Dive Lab Inc, our landlords in Panama City Beach, Florida, and we have in our hands the Uniform Report for 2001. Our associate, Mr. Mike Ward, of Dive Lab, assures us that they never received this Business Report form earlier in 2001 and did not realise that it had an early filing date. The first form they got was the "reminder" which we have now filled in and are returning. The company moved from Stuart, Florida to Panama City Beach at the beginning of last year and I have been in Sweden since that time, working on two projects with the Swedish Navy, hence this sole trading firm, Marine Research Sweden, from which I am writing to you.

In view of the delay in receiving the form and then getting it here, I would respectfully request that you accept our ~~cashier's~~ check in the amount of $150, being the annual report fee for the company. I am also pleased to advise you that the address you have for Marine Research Inc is correct. Dive Lab have checked several times but can find no trace of the original form and we ask that you accept our apology for this delay and allow us to pay the basic fee. The company has no real property and has not traded in the past ten years. According to our accountants in Stuart the company's status is "inactive" but since we are still doing promotion on the part of the company it would be very much appreciated if we can keep it on your books. We anticipate success during the latter part of this year. Kindly give this request your kind consideration.

Yours faithfully,
For Marine Research Corporation,

Anthony Pope,
President.
