The Class C Director shall be appointed from time to time by National Century Financial Enterprises, Inc., in its sole and absolute discretion. The Class D Director shall be appointed from time to time by agreement of the Class A Director and the Class C Director; provided, however, that until he resigns or is removed, John Miller shall be the Class D Director. The Class E Director shall be appointed from time to time by a majority vote of the Class A Director, the Class C Director and the Class D Director; provided, however, the Class E Director shall be a person who (a) is not related to the Company's shareholders by blood or marriage, and (b) is not nor has been an employee of or consultant to the Company. The Class B Director may not be appointed until the Class E Director is appointed. During any period in which a vacancy in the office of the Class E Director exists, the Class B Director shall have no voting rights and shall not be counted towards any quorum with respect to any matter presented to the Board. The Class A Director may be removed only by the Company's shareholders. The Class B Director may be removed by either (a) Stephen H. Winters or Any vacancies on the Board of Directors may only be filled by the person or persons who are authorized hereby to appoint such Directors. All Directors shall be appointed until they are removed in accordance herewith or they resign. The Members of the Board cannot be removed by the Company's shareholders until the first to occur of : (a) the entry of an order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Tennessee, Western Division (the "Court") removing any Director at the request of the Company's shareholders; (b) the confirmation of a Plan of Reorganization with respect to the Company; or (c) the termination of the period in which the Company has the exclusive right to file a Plan of Reorganization with such Court, which such period shall include the confirmation process. No provision of this Article may be amended or repealed without the approval of the Court, or until the Company has had its Plan of Reorganization confirmed by such Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Article may be amended or repealed in the event the Proposed Order Resolving Disputes, Allowing Debtors to Sell Accounts Receivable and to Incur Post-Petition Debt Under U.S.C. Section 364 And Granting Superpriority Liens, attached to the Joint Motion to Approve Terms of Continued Funding, Settlements and Related Matters, is not entered by the Court, recognizing, however, that said Proposed Order is subject to modification prior to entry.
