Dear Kathy:

On Friday, October 13, I contacted the Reinstatement Office. I spoke with you and explained that we have not registered as a corporation because we did not receive any forms. You confirmed that the January notice was returned, however, the June and September (notice of Admin. Dissolution) notices have not been returned. You said since the January notice was returned, the fact was established that we did not receive our notices.

Per your instructions, I am enclosing $150, and request the reinstatement fee be waived.

The enclosed form has been updated to reflect our correct mailing address.

In the future, I can assure you that our filing fee will be paid on time. If I fail to get a notice, I will most certainly call.

Thank you, Kathy. You were most helpful, pleasant and patient.

Sincerely,
