Dear Sir:

Attached is the "2nd Notice" 1998 Annual Report for the above-captioned taxpayer along with a check in the amount of $150.00.

I am the taxpayer's accountant and was directed by KRG Enterprises, Inc. to respond concerning the "2nd Notice" 1998 Annual Report.

The taxpayer has always diligently filed its Annual Report timely. I prepared the original 1998 Annual Report for the taxpayer on February 14, 1998 to assure timely filing. A copy of said Annual Report and my cover letter to the taxpayer is attached for your information.

We were unaware that you had not received the 1998 Annual Report until we received the "2nd Notice" form. I called your office recently to explain the situation and was told by your representative to file the "2nd Notice" form and send a check for $150.00 along with an explanation to help you assess the problem and determine if any penalties or interest may apply.

The original 1998 Annual Report has not been returned to us and no check has cleared our bank account. Apparently the Report was misdirected or lost in the mail.

The taxpayer's intent was to file timely and through no fault of its own failed to do so. We hereby respectfully request waiver of any penalty or interest assessed, if any.

If I can offer any further assistance, please call or write to me at the above address.

Very truly yours,

Larry C. Hinson
