Re: I. Jeffrey Pheterson, P.A.
FEIN: 59-2624403

Dear Ms. Hood:

Enclosed are the 2003 For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report and a check for $150.00 for the above referenced corporation. Based on the following, we believe sufficient reasonable cause exists to allow for the abatement of late fees associated with the filing of this report.

On January 30, 2003, I reviewed, completed and mailed the Uniform Business Report to the corporation for payment, signature, and filing. Apparently, the report was lost in the mail, as the non-filing of the report was not discovered until the corporation received a second blank report from your office. At no time was there any intentional disregard of the filing requirements. A review of past filings clearly indicates a history of timely filing by the corporation.

Accordingly, we respectfully request any late fees be abated.

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration.

Sincerely,

Ted O. Winter, CPA
