Gentlemen

Our first Corporate notice was not received due to the fact that the Red Barn Plaza where our store was located burned to the ground.

During reconstruction although our physical location was the same had been assigned a new address by the post office. As a result it has been a problem receiving mail and for some reason mail was not forwarded. Our Corporate report reflects our new mailing address.

As per telephone conversation as of July 23rd we are enclosing our check in the amount of $150.00, our 1998 Annual report and this letter of explanation.

Hoping this explanation will be acceptable, I remain

Very Truly yours
Vice President
Sylvia A. Van Tassel
