To Whom it May Concern,

I originally filed this report in April and enclosed a check # 6023 in the amount of $150.00. Out of human error the bottom of the report was not signed and the form was sent back for a signature. The form was signed by an officer on June 16, 2006 and sent back in again.

A second notice was sent for notice of intent to dissolve and I contacted the Division of Corporations at 850-245-6056 ext 4. I was informed that the form had not been received in the system yet, but it could take up to 28 days. The feeling I got was not that the person on the other end was very concerned.

I just received a third notice stating that the corporation was dissolved or revoked. I spoke with someone again at the Division of Corporations and told to resend in the report with a new signature, since all I had was one with a copy, and to include a letter explaining what happened so I wouldn't be charged the reinstatement fee.

Thank you in advance.

John E Gravois
