To whom it may concern:

On July 5, 2001 our office contacted the Florida Department of State, Uniform Business Report Office. Our concern was that we had not received the first document your office sent to us. We were unaware that it was due before May 1, 2001. We have two (2) businesses at this address and neither business received this document. As of this date our other business (American Roofing, Inc.), still has not received the first or second filing statements. As we spoke to Ruth at your office, she stated that she would send the document to American Roofing, Inc. located at the same address.

According to our phone conversation it was stated that if we explained this in writing we could possibly wavier the penalty and send a check for $150.00. Which we have enclosed.

We appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

James B. Garris
