Gentlemen;

I received a "2nd Notice" for filing my 1997 Corporate Report. I never received my first notice and noted that you have a wrong address on the filing papers. I moved from Misty Oaks Court almost three years ago, and have filed on the appropriate time frame ever since I incorporated. I resent the fact that you find me delinquent.

I tried to reach your telephone line for almost two hours to-day and have resorted to sending this letter to you in lieu of spending an inordinate amount of time on the telephone only to get a recording that "no one is answering the phone--Try again".

I do not feel that I am delinquent. My previous reports were filed on time because the papers were mailed to my current address. Why you are sending this years' papers to my old address, I don't know.

I will not renew my corporation papers if you still maintain I am late. Ever since I incorporated 11 years ago, I have never been penalized with a late charge. Because someone in your office mailed my paper to the wrong address, I do not feel I should be responsible. The person to whom I sold my home and to which you mailed the 1997 papers, finally located me and called me to pick up the 1997 report forms.

Please advise me ASAP of your findings.

Sincerely,

DONALD A. TRAURIG
