Subject: 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report-----Received 8-13-99

Dear Sirs;

On August 13, 1999, I received my mail from my previous mailing address, which included the SECOND NOTICE for the above report.

I NEVER RECEIVED THE FIRST NOTICE!!!!

Since there has been an address change since my last report, either this report was lost in the mail or the current addressee did not forward my mail---but the fact is that I NEVER RECEIVED THE FIRST NOTICE.

If you will note in this report, there are address changes.

In addition, we have never been late with this report in the past and would hardly want to incur a $400.00 penalty.

I contacted your office by phone, and was informed that it is possible for a report to be lost, especially in the case of an address change.

Therefore, he suggested that I submit check in the amount $150.00 and a letter explaining that I had NOT received the FIRST REPORT.

Sincerely yours,
Subway Investments of Hillsborough, Fl. Inc.

Thomas H. Pletta, President
