Dear Sir or Madam,

Please except my sincere apology for getting too caught up in everyday routine and let my due date of my annual report come and go. I had sent my card in to you requesting a form to be sent to me, the computer in my office was broken so at that time I couldn't do the renewal on line. If you would please look up my company you will see I have never been late with my payments to you. So again will you please except my apology and wave my late fee, and I will try my best to not let this happen again.

Sincerely,
Lonnie Raynor (sec.)
