Subject: Annual Report (notice not received)

Dear Sir; I have not received the Annual Report Filing until the post card that noted "Notice of intent to Dissolve".....Why aren't notices sent out before these taxes are due?.....During normal business work for small companies like mine it is very easy to not remember these. Why not send a letter or an E-mail of this due tax?.....I strongly disagree with the notice of $550.00 late fee when there isn't an original statement of the tax. I have a very strong credit record with my company and my personal credit and I pay all my bills on time. Please let me know if this can be rectified? Also, how in the future can I be notified of this due tax?

Harold Pate
