Dear Representative:

I am writing regarding my 2002 UBR. We never received the original report this year. The additional line in the mailing address may have caused this. I contacted your office regarding this matter yesterday, August 7th. The instructions I received were to enclose a letter stating these facts and to remit a payment of $150.00 without fees. Because of our past timely payments, I hope that this will be easily resolved. I filled out the change of address section so that the address will be inspected and the additional line taken out. Feel free to contact me regarding this matter. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Jean Gordon
