To Whom It May Concern:

I have been in business since 1986 and have never NOT paid my corporate annual report fee.

My accountant brought to my attention (after having another of his clients get a second request form with a penalty of over $500) -- he looked to see who else has not filed this year. I have not yet received my first or second request and as I was at this location last year -- I can only think one of the other bays have received it in error and not realizing its importance, threw it away. Last year "The Personnel Pool was in bay one and we were in bay 7 with no one in between. This year all the bays are filled and often the mail is misdirected.

Please accept this application and explanation -- look at my record and PLEASE waive any penalty due. We are a small corporation. Scott Malcolm is my husband and we have only one employee -- we are having a tough year and can't afford a penalty.

Thanking you in advance,

Valerie Carbone
President
