Nov. 15, 1996

Dear Mr. Caldwell;

As we discussed on the phone, evidently my change of address notice to your department was delayed, and consequently, the post office did not deliver the the filing forms for my corporation, The Contented Crab, Inc. and fictitious name notice for The Best of Everything and Best International, to the new address in time for a timely filing.

Therefore, as you recommended, I am resubmitting the forms with a check for $225.00 for the 1996 filing. Also, as we discussed, as I am starting a new venture with Best International, I am not financially able to pay any additional fees; the $225.00 fee is a strain on a new bank account, especially at this time of year when merchants are not ordering new merchandise.

So, I requestfully request that this corporation, incorporated in 1986, be renewed without further penalty. Hopefully, next year's notice will reach me in time at the current address: 1302 NW 14 St., Boca Raton Fl 33486.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Have a thankful Thanksgiving and a loving holiday season with those close to you.

Sincerely,

(Ms.) Bernell Stein
