Dear Ms. Ashton:

I have received your letter, dated April 17, 2002 regarding the return of the check for the annual filing fee. Your letter states the check was returned due to the incorrect amount. Your letter indicated MJM, Inc has lost its corporation status in the State of Florida, and to be reinstated, which according to the letter, would cost $900.00.

In researching, you will see that our corporation has always paid the annual renewal fee on time so I was surprised to hear our status has expired. On February 8, 2001 I issued two checks, check number 02 to the Department of State for the annual filing fee and check 03 to the North Carolina Dept. of Revenue. Check #02 was cashed on February 16, 2001, but now in looking at the back of the check, it was cashed by the North Carolina State Treasurer. I honestly did not look the back of the check until I started researching this problem. When the check cleared I reconciled the account, as in every month and did not look at the back of the check to see who endorsed it. I apologize for the oversight.

Since I received your letter I have spent much time in researching the problem and asked our CPA to check to see if his office received a letter regarding our corporation status. Neither the CPA nor I find any correspondence, which tells us our status, has expired. The first week of May 2002, I called the Division of Corporations and was told our check was returned last year because it was issued to the wrong department. I do not find any record of such a letter.

I realize how important it is to file on time and I honestly believe I did do that. If I have created an oversight or problem, then I am sincerely sorry! I am hoping you will forgive the mistake and allow the corporation to be reinstated for the $150.00 annual fee. I have enclosed the original check for the filing fee.

I deeply appreciated your cooperation in this matter. If you should need to contact me my telephone number is 828-885-2553.

Sincerely,

Susan Sweatland

Secretary

MJM, Inc.
