Gentlemen:

We received notification from you on June 30, 1998 that our 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report had not been received in your office as of the deadline of May 1st. We did mail our report with the required filing fee of $150.00 on April 21, 1998. A copy of the report form as we filed it is enclosed. We were becoming concerned that our check had not cleared when we received your second notice mailing. We also have found that some other mailings posted at the same time as your report did not reach their intended destination.

We contacted your office by telephone on July 3 and were advised by the staff person who took our call to obtain a blank Annual Report Form and forward it with our check for $150 and include this letter of explanation.

We request your consideration in this matter and wish to point out that this is the first time in the 12 years of our incorporation that we have been late in filing our annual report and filing fee.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Bentz

President
