Re: FEI. 59-2771577

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed find our corporation U.B.R. for the year 2000. Also enclosed find our check covering our $150.00 filing fee plus $8.75 for a certificate of status. It is being filed past the May deadline.

We have moved twice within the past year, once temporary and, now, permanently. The address on this is the correct new address for P BROWN, INC. The company is homebased, has limited activity and no employees other than the officer owners. We moved from St. Petersburg in July, 2000.

None of your reporting form packets for 2000 ever caught up to us. In mid-August, a late filing packet for a different corporation (of which I am also President) luckily reached us, calling the need to file to our attention. Neither that corporation's nor this corporation's May filing packet for 2000 ever reached us. Although we should have remembered the May filing date, we didn't. In the past, your Department has always jogged our memory with the filing kits you sent to us. With a double move, it has been a particularly hectic year.

We respectfully request that you waive the late fee under these circumstances.

Sincerely yours,

PATRICIA F. BROWN
President
