2002 Uniform Business Report

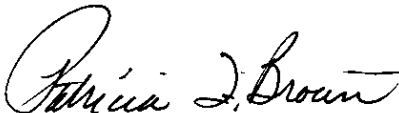

I just received a form to submit my 2002 Uniform Business Report. It was the first notice I can remember receiving but it included a $400 late filing penalty.

We moved just over a year ago, and it is possible that the original form you sent was lost in the mail. At any rate, I sent an email to your office and was informed that, if I had not received the original packet, I should send my check for the reduced fee (without the penalty), along with a letter of explanation.

I'll attach a copy of my e-mail correspondence with your office. I hereby submit the form and check.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Patricia F. Brown
President, P. Brown, Inc.

Thank you. I shall write such a letter and also attach my check for the $158.75 instead of $558.75; is this correct?

If your corporation did not receive the uniform business report packet by mail from our office, please submit a letter that states this information when submitting a completed report. The corporation will not be charged the late fee if you follow these instructions.

I just received the documents in yesterday's mail. Did you send a packet earlier? If so, since I didn't receive it, can you waive the late fee?

Thank you.

What is the justification for this enormous fee increase?
