Dear Sirs:

We received our 2003 Uniform Business Report renewal form on July 18, 2003. We were surprised to see that the fee was now $550.00. After calling your offices and listening to your voice mail messages we realized that if we were sent a report prior to this for a fee of $150.00 (which is what we have always paid) we did not receive it. I note on the front of the form we just received that the "sender was notified of change of address on 7/02/03. We had changed our "mailing address" only, and realize that we have not had some mail forwarded to us for some reason and it may have included this form from you.

We would appreciate it if you would accept our enclosed check to renew our business form in the amount of $150.00, as always paid promptly in the past. We thank you for your time and consideration. Should there be a problem please notify us.

Again, thank you.

Cordially,

Sheridan Hause, President
