Subject: Annual Corporate Report

We received a notice today that we owed $550.00 for our annual report because it was late. I spoke with someone in your office, and they verified that the report had been returned to you undelivered. The mailing address listed on the report is our street address, but we receive virtually no mail at this address. (It was also our understanding that we could not use a P.O. Box for the mailing address. However, we have changed that based on my discussion with your office.)

The woman I spoke to said that we should send the normal $150 fee with an explanatory letter and consideration would be given to accepting this as the necessary fee. Thank you for your consideration on this matter.

Sincerely,

Louis M. Wenick
