To whom it may concern:

I have enclosed my report and as you can see I have moved (moved as of January 1, 2003) and candidly did not receive the initial report.

I did receive this one two to three weeks ago and called your office today. Simply put I did not receive the last report and therefor could not send it in on time. I am asking for some understanding as I do not have the report "tickled" anywhere to remind of the May 1 date and did not receive it until some time in July.

I appreciate your understanding in advance. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call. I actually did not even realize that I owed more until I pulled this report out to file "on time".

Sincerely,

J. David Eggers
President
