Dear Sirs,

*35.00 *35.00

On January 5th of this year 2000, I returned the Uniform Business Report informing you that I elected to dissolve my Bag Partners Insurance Services Inc. effective 4/30/99. This was done at the direction of my accountant at that time, as I retired and elected to terminate the corporation.

I was quite shocked to receive this latest notice this past week asking for a late penalty. So I called my accountant, and he told me that I should file the enclosed Article of Dissolution Form, which I am enclosing with my personal check #5835 for $35.00. I asked him why he didn't tell me this before instead of saying on the Uniform Report that I had dissolved the corporation.

I sincerely hope that this explanation will satisfy my dilemma and that I will not have to come up with such an amount, as it would cause quite a hardship in as much as I am now retired.

The Bay Partners Ins Svs Inc Checking account was closed out on May 15, 1999 with no further business being transacted.

I hope this explanation will satisfy this situation.

Sincerely,

Eric M. Buzza
