Re: E.L.K. Enterprises, Inc. - FEI # 592782813 -- J64571

To Whom It May Concern:

2

With regard to the above mentioned corporation, I am in need of your assistance.

Six - seven years ago I was forced to move from the location that is listed with your offices as my address due to a marital separation. Unfortunately, when I moved a lot of my personal mail was not forwarded on to me from my wife at that address. Over the past few years, neither one of us reside at that address. Due to the above situation, I have not received the Annual Report form for several years.

I am now trying to get all of my affairs back in order and I realize now that my corporation has been dissolved and I am in desperate need to have it reinstated. As per instructions from your office I am enclosing an Application for Reinstatement. After your review of my situation, please inform me as to what it will take to reinstate my corporation. I am hoping that the costs to reinstate will be affordable for me, however, if it is cost prohibitive, perhaps it would make more sense to dissolve E.L.K. Enterprises and open a new corporation. Naturally, I would prefer to keep my existing corporation in force. I will wait to hear back from your office. I am getting ready to renew my Workmen's Compensation in the next couple of weeks and would appreciate a response at your earliest convenience.

I am most grateful for all of your consideration in this matter. I've provided you with my new address so I will be able to receive the Annual Report and file more efficiently in the future.

My previous address on file is 1656 Grand Oak Drive, Apopka, FL. My current address is: 25851 Oakridge Avenue, Mt. Plymouth, FL 32776.

Sincerely,

Edwin L. Kania
