2000 Uniform Business Report – Document J68653

To Whom It May Concern:

I apologize for the late receipt of this report. When I received the attached 2000 Uniform Business Report, I immediately prepared and processed it to Accounts Payable - along with a request for a check. Last week it was found – inadvertently filed with an American Express invoice.

I apologize for this oversight. In the 13-year history of our company we have always paid our bills on time and met all our obligations – without fail. Our reputation and our credit history both testify to this diligent and responsible business behavior. (If you are able to check your records in regard to past filings, you will see that we have always submitted this filing prior to the deadline.) I ask that you kindly forgive this unfortunate occurrence of mis-filing.

Yours very truly,

Twana Barnett, President
