RE: Enclosed Annual Report

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed with this letter is a 1997 Annual Report for my company. Due to marital problems and separation from my wife, I have not been able to file this report on a timely basis. As I did not know by receipt of this form when it was mailed that the due date had been moved up from July to May, I did not know to press her for this form or any other mail that may have been withheld from me.

I regret the inconvenience that this has caused myself and your division, and would request that this form and the fee enclosed be accepted. As I cannot verify when the form was mailed or recieved, I could only act on it this week. I have noted alternate addresses that can be used for mailing and physical service in case you need to send any other correspondence (and in case I do not move back home) until the next filing period.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

John Baker
