Hello Ladies and/or Gentlemen

I received a second UBR form for late filing and wish to bring to your attention that the original UBR and Check # 3046 was timely received by the Division of Corporations on April 28, 2003

Division of Corporations is in possession of my check # 3046 and my original UBR form, received by the Division, Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested. April 28, 2003.

I mailed a Large Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested envelop containing 3 individual Division UBR return envelopes for 3 separate corporations.

- 1)ADCO Sign Corporation Check #3045
- 2)Coleman High Performance Marine inc dba Cougar Powerboats of Florida inc #3046
- 3)Sign Products International inc #3047

Each of the three UBR return envelopes contained a UBR and a $150.00 Check written on the same account and consecutively numbered # 3045 #3046 & #3047.

I have supplied copies of the signed Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested Receipt plus copies of all 3 UBR forms with copies of the individual checks.

I have also supplied the front and rear of checks #3045 & 3047 with the Division of Corporations deposit stamp dated April 28 2003.

The check for the subject application has not cleared my bank which indicates to me that my check #3046 and UBR for Coleman High Performance Marine has been lost or misplaced within the offices of the Division of Corporations, since the large master envelope containing all 3 Division UBR return envelopes with individual checks and UBR forms which were received April 28, 2003. I have attached to the subject UBR, a copy of my bank statement indicating that the #3046 Check did not clear the bank when #3045 & 3047 did clear..

This happening is not of my making because I performed my end and have herewith supplied the factual proof that I was in timely compliance, therefore I ask for a simple resolution of this matter.

Please feel free to call me on this 727-538-3863

Thank you in advance for your courtesy.

Sincerely,
