To whom It May Concern:

I have received the 2002 Uniform Business Report (UBR), Document # J74906

this week. I called your office and spoke with Tiriany. I informed her of the fact that this is the first UBR we have received this year, and it would seem that some late fees are involved. She told me to give you this information and pay the $150.00 usual fee.

The only problems I have had with staying current with your agency have occurred after the sale of our other business, Cypress Isle R.V. Park & Marina. Our mail has never been forwarded according to our contract with the new owners of that business, thus I had fallen behind. I corrected that problem and paid all late fees last year and intended to stay current with all future filings, as I had done in the past.

Please check your records to be sure our address is correctly listed in all the appropriate places. I have not had any other problems with the mail service once I had gotten our address corrected with the appropriate people, businesses, and government agencies we are involved with. Therefore I assume that was the problem, or the unusual happened and the mail was lost or destroyed along the way.

I hope this will satisfy you as to our intentions to file promptly, and stay current with The Division of Corporations.

Sincerely,

Lola Ann Bishop

Lola Ann Bishop V.P., Sec.
