Re: The Mahr Company      FEI # 59-2860172

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept my sincere apologies for the tardiness in filing our corporate report this year. There were however extenuating circumstances beyond my control as I explained to a document specialist, Tyrone, of your office the other day. It was he that suggested that I write this letter to you to explain.

The Mahr Company, is a Florida Corporation, and I am the only Officer and Director. We have been in business since 1987, and in all that time have never been late in our filings. Unfortunately this year I was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital in February for emergency surgery, which resulted in me almost losing my life, and being in a coma for about three weeks. I was in the hospital for an extended period thereafter, and it has taken all of this time for me to recover and start to make some headway with my business and resulting paperwork.

I am terribly sorry, but there was no one that called to my attention that the filing was late, and or that there may be a cancellation as a result.

Because of all of the down time and the intense recovery period I have been through, as I am sure you can imagine, business for this year has been marginal. I am really not able to afford to pay the late charges for this filing. However do very much want to stay in business, and look forward to a full recovery. Please accept the enclosed check in the amount of $ 150.00 for the filing of our annual report, together with my sincere apologies for any inconvenience this may of caused.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,
The Mahr Company

F. Sanford Mahr, CCIM
President
