Re: Corporate Filing
Sub: 2000 filing Document #K04306

Dear Sirs;

We have timely filed our returned. We have not gotten our check back through the bank.

The other companies we filed in the same envelope have cleared.

We have called 3 or 4 phone numbers in late May checking on it because we were advised that although the check was properly annotated and signed we did not put anything in the payee line as to the 'Florida Department of State'. This was done.

The check number we are looking for is 1329, dated 14 Apr 00 as were the others we included in the original filing for this year. Of course it was a Bell 2, Inc. check and now we are wondering what will come of it as time goes by.

On the 4 or 5 phone call loopback and run around this AM, I was advised that if it eventually finds its way through we will be entitled to a refund but that I should re-file with this letter.

Enclosed please find a replacement check and the second notice that has shocked us.... after the original calls where the operators thought that somebody was behind and would eventually post the initial filing. 'Don't worry.' Apparently not so.

Please abate, set aside or wave any and all potentially added charges related to this filing. Thank you.

Perhaps if things weren't as computerized or automated this wouldn't have happened. A person would have fixed or handled the situation with dispatch.

Sincerely,

R. Boskind, GM
