Re: Reinstatement of Lapsed Corp.

Gentlemen:

In telephone conversation with one of your agents this morning, I explained that, because our offices moved in 1996, the Corporate Annual Report did not reach us and was consequently not filed and the fee not paid. It was only this year that I noticed that no corporate report was received. I asked your agent if there might not be a mitigation of the penalty given that the report was not received and he asked me to write this letter of explanation.

He also advised me to remit with company check in the amount of $665.00 and told me that a one-time waiver might be approved.

Please find our check enclosed and thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Owen B. Patton
