Reference: Annual Corporate Report – Enclosed

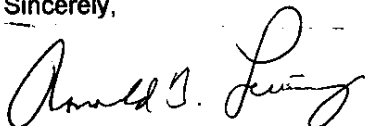

With reference to the enclosed Annual Corporate Report for Silent Partner, Inc., I received no notice of billing other than a recent postcard stating that I am delinquent in filing this year.

When I attempted to call your office to discuss this matter, the automated response stated that if notice was not received, I should so indicate by checking the box on the Annual Report and then submit it with a check for $150.00. Having downloaded the report from your website, I now note on it no such box to be checked. Thus I write this letter to let you know the circumstances.

I have no intention to terminate my corporation, and would do nothing to jeopardize its active status. Had I received any sort of notice or instructions from you, I assure you that I would have responded in an appropriate manner.

Please waive the $400.00 penalty and accept the enclosed report and my check in the amount of $150.00. If, however, that is not satisfactory, please advise me as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Ronald B. Leininger
President
