To whom it may concern,

Pursuant to our conversation with Mrs. Price, We respectfully request that the Department accept out application and check in the amount of $150.00, for the 2003 corporate filing.

As we have explained, we are a small business and our bookkeeper left us with little notice and she had placed many bills and other documents she did not want to bother with in a box that she never told us about. We are still finding "misplaced" paperwork.

As you can see our check was prepared in April, with the intent to have a timely filing.

We would very much appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mark Buchalter
President
