To whom it may concern,

My letter is concerning my Corp. annual Filing Fee. My first notice was never received to me personally, due to the situation I am about to explain. My mailing address at 19610 Gunn is on a country road, of which my mail box had been located on the opposite side of the street as my fenced in residence. There are many young drag racers and mischievous kids in the area. We had found our mail box which sat on a post totally knocked down post & all. I had one vendor for my company complain of not getting a payment for a small batch of invoices, and then knew that I had lost some of my mail. caused by the mail box situation. When I pulled out the corporation packet the first part of September in preparation to mail out my Corp. Fee, I realized it was the 2nd request with penalty attached. I realized then that I had lost the 1st Corp. Packet also in the group of mail that got knocked down + out of my mail box. I called you, and was told to get a letter to correct my problem so it doesn't happen again from my Post Office + then also to write this letter to explain why I am asking for the penalty to be waived. Leslie (examiner) at your waiver department told me to enclose both letters + a check for $150.00 (Corp. Filing Fee) and send to you postmarked by Sep. 30. Sorry for it being right down to the last day.

but I had to wait for the post office letter. They had to first investigate the situation, get permission from the Post Master to okay the relocation of my mail box, because it meant changing their mail route a little. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Therdy E. Miss McComb

Dear Customer;

At your request, I am writing this letter to explain the situation about your mailbox. At some point, in ~~May~~ ^{March} 1998, your mailbox was knocked down by someone. The mail could have been knocked out of the box but that is not certain. You called the Odessa post office, asking to move the mailbox to the other side of the road so it would be in front of your house. It took several weeks for this request to be granted. The box is now in front of your house. If I can be of further assistance, please call me.

Sincerely,

STANLEY V. FIVECOAT
