Ladies/Gentlemen:

We represent each of the above-referenced corporations. Arrangements were made for the corporate annual reports to be executed by John Shullman, as officer of each company and forwarded for delivery to you prior to May 1, 1998. Unfortunately, due to a family emergency the executing officer was unable to keep the appointment to come to my office to sign the annual reports. I enclose each of the annual reports together with the filing fees of $150.00 per report. Please consider this letter as a request that any penalties for late filing be waived in light of the extenuating circumstances surrounding the delay.

Thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Conrad J. Boyle
