Dear Sir:

Re: AABAA International, Inc. FEI #65-0024974
Reference Number K11777

Please find enclosed a copy of correspondence requesting that the late fee be waived for AABAA Intrnational, Inc. and 2 other corporations. The late fee was waived for Sceptre Leasing Co., Inc. but not for AABAA INTERNATIONAL, Inc. It appears that the letter was separated from the annual uniform business report for AABAA International, Inc.

I therefore respectfully request that the late fees be waived for AABAA International, Inc. in the same manner and for the same reasons as set forth for Sceptre Leasing Co., Inc.

If the late fees cannot be administratively waived, please advise me via email or phone and I will send in the additional fee immediately.

I HAVE ADDED THAT HAL LASHLEE IS PRESIDENT OF AABAA INTERNATIONAL, INC.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Cormac C. Conahan

Dear Sir:

~~Re:~~ Ashton-Barton, Inc. FEI #65-0082653
AABAA International, Inc. #65-0024974
Sceptre Leasing Co., Inc. #65-0223069

I am responsible for filing the Uniform Business Report for the above corporations.

This year, beginning at the end of January, and extending for 3 months, my 89 year old father was hospitalized with serious physical and mental disorders. He required nearly constant care and was near death several times. I was his primary care giver and many days I slept only 2 or 3 hours.

In addition, my 93 year old mother went into intensive care and passed away recently. Again, I was primarily responsible for caring for her medical needs.

Because of these very traumatic personal difficulties various tasks went undone, including filing the Uniform Business Reports for the above three corporations.

Frankly, I would have to pay the late fees out of my pocket and this would be a significant financial strain at this time.

I therefore respectfully request ~~that the late fees be~~ waived for the three corporations.

Accordingly, I have enclosed three checks for $150.00 each. If the late fees cannot be administratively waived, please advise me via email or phone and I will send in the additional fee immediately.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Cormac C. Conahan
