Re: Reinstatement of Hillman Construction Corp. (Document # K20293)

Dear Ruby,

Thank you for your kind assistance this morning regarding the problem I have had with my corporation being listed as inactive. This problem was due to not receiving my corporate renewal papers, due to my having moved. So as to finally get this resolved once and for all, I have sent this check and reinstatement form via overnight mail.

Even though I have not used my corporation for quite some time, I have always wanted to keep my corporation active for future business. I never intended for it to become inactive. (Note: A copy of my Florida CGC contractor's license from the (FL) Dept. Of Business & Professional Regulation is also attached to this correspondence, just in case you want to see that too.)

Please note that I am a small business owner that has never had any business problems of any kind [ever]... and I intend to keep it that way for many years to come. Unfortunately, unexpected family needs, deaths and illness have caused me great personal trouble in recent years. That is all behind me now and I am trying to tie up loose ends in my business life now. All of which is why I especially appreciate your kind, professional manner of assistance this morning. With all I've been through, your polite and thorough helpfulness meant a lot to me.

Thus, as per your instructions, Ruby, enclosed you will find a reinstatement form from your website and, also as we discussed, a check for $758.75 to bring me up to date.

The $8.75 portion of the enclosed amount is for a current certificate of status.

Sincerely,

David R. Hill
President
