Re: Notice of Intent to Dissolve, copy enclosed

To Whom It May Concern:

Please review all enclosed copies and all questions should be resolved in the end.

After not receiving my little post card this year I sent payment to your division as soon as the deadline was mentioned. Without your little post card my check was returned with a blank UBR, (copy enclosed) which was promptly filled out and returned to your division. After a brief time I receive a letter telling me that my report has not been filed but, my check for the amount of $150.00 has been cashed, (copy enclosed,) and now you're threatening to dissolve my corporation! Imagine my discontent! After discussing this matter with my accountant, he informed me that if I had access to a computer and the internet I could have paid this with a credit card and by simply checking a box at the top of the page that explains I did not receive your little post card all would be forgiven and this is still available as of today's date. My accountant printed me a copy of this page so I could enclose a copy with this letter.

It appears that for not having a computer and internet access I'm being punished however I know this couldn't be true and is just an oversight. After review of the enclosed documents I'm sure all will be cleared up and I'll be reinstated in good standing as the state has already accepted my payment.

I hope this clears this matter up completely.

Respectfully,

Dennis J. Lesser
