2000 Uniform Business Report

Gentlemen,

Our client has forwarded the attached for explanation.

Please be advised that Mr. Stuart Ferber, Vice President and Secretary of the above referenced corporations handled all filings for both entities. In 1999 Mr. Ferber became extremely ill and eventually passed away from terminal cancer. During this time, the office was restructured and Mr. Ferber's job responsibilities were shifted to an administrative assistant who is no longer employed by the above. When the second notice for the Uniform Business Reports were received, it became apparent that the timely reports were not filed and to this day, are unable to be located by the client.

In lieu of the above, we ask that you accept the reports as being timely filed, and the $150 fee for each entity.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation and we await your response.

Sincerely,

Joyce M. Barbera
