Dear Eula Peterson,

This is to inform you that that I Daisy Nunez never received the annual report for this company. In conclusion to not receiving this annual report my company has been inactive since September 21, 2001. I was not at any time informed that the annual report was past due.

I ask that you reconsider this case and wave the penalty interest that have been applied in this case due to the fact that I moved the location of the business. This may be the reason why I did not received the annual report for the year of 2001. The new address is:
