Regarding: Annual Uniform Business Report
For the year 2003

I
In response to our phone conversation and the notice I received.

I sent in my annual Uniform Business Report with a check on April 25, 2003.
It was returned to me in May along with the check saying I had to send in an original form.

I sent an original form along with the check in May.

The check was then deposited.

If the form had not been received the procedure of the first sending would have been followed. The check would have been returned along with a letter. Since it was deposited
I am accepting that as an assurance that it was received.

Therefore I should not have to resubmit or reactivate the Corporation. It should not Be dissolved, as the report and payment were sent in timely.

Thank you, if any further action is needed on my part please notify me immediately.

Sincerely,

Carmelo Rosario
