To Whom It May Concern:

RE: FEI # 59-2937435

I just received a notice from your office that we have had our corporate status dissolved for failing to file our corporation annual report/uniform business report. I never received the original correspondence and just received this dissolution notice, which was mailed to a non-existent address. I'm sure the original corporation annual report and any subsequent notices were also sent to the computer-generated address, which is incorrect in your system. I don't know how long this dissolution notice has been floating within the mail system before I finally, by chance, received it.

The name and address of the registered agent is listed correctly, but the mailing address where documentation is being sent is incorrect and should be changed to:

Kirker, Inc.

2480 Joe Ashton Rd.

St. Augustine, FL 32092

Please correct our mailing address in your system and re-instate our corporate status. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Steve Kirker, President
