Dear Sirs;

As per our telephone conversation I am writing you this letter to let you know that I never recieved my first UBR. As I sat down to write my check I realized something was wrong. I never owed $550.00., once I started reading it said it was my second notice. I had never recieved my 1st notice. My business has had problems with our mail because the place where the mail was going went out of business in March, but we have had all our mail forwarded.

Please can you make a special consideration on my fee because as you can see in the past the business has never been late.

Sincerely,
Michael J. Keenan
