Dear Madam or Sir,

We respectfully appeal your " Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" on the basis that to the best of our knowledge and honest belief we do think we ever received the original or the reminder notice.

These items always come to me and/or our accountant. We are very careful with all the government tax returns, licenses, and other reports and filings. I give you my word of honor and that of our accountant ( I just spoke with her and have that permission from her too) that we do not think we received the form. We surely would have reacted to a reminder.

We are a small company, struggling as it is, in our Industry and locales. We have already had to close two of our offices in Florida and are trying very hard to hang on during this time in St. Petersburg/Tamps and Orlando. I am enclosing the $150 and respectfully request you forgive the fine/penalty. ( All of the owners shown on the form have taken substantial pay cuts which I offer to you to consider our request for help on this.)

Thank you,
Sincerely,

John L. Curry, Jr.
President
