11. Explain the importance of the following: (10 marks)

(a) Corporate social responsibility: This refers to the responsibility of a company to its stakeholders, beyond its shareholders. It involves the company's commitment to ethical, legal, and social obligations. Corporate social responsibility is important because it helps to build a positive reputation for the company, which can lead to increased sales and profitability. It also helps to attract and retain talented employees, and it can lead to improved relationships with the community and government.

(b) Environmental sustainability: This refers to the ability to meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs. Environmental sustainability is important because it helps to protect the environment, which is essential for the well-being of all people. It also helps to conserve natural resources, which are essential for economic growth and development.

(c) Employee well-being: This refers to the physical, mental, and social well-being of employees. Employee well-being is important because it helps to improve productivity and reduce absenteeism. It also helps to attract and retain talented employees, and it can lead to improved relationships with the community and government.
