Dear Mr. or Ms.:

This is my second attempt to file my corporate return.

I contacted your office immediately when I received my second notice because I did not, to my best knowledge, receive a first notice. Also, paying the penalty fee would present a hardship for me. Following the instructions I was given, I wrote a letter, as I am now doing, and sent it in along with my report and payment. Unfortunately, I used the envelope provided with the report, and the report and payment were returned to me. I contacted your office again and was given the correct address to send to, and hope you will now resolve this matter.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Jay Kolinsky
