Gentlemen:

I am enclosing the "Second Notice" we received regarding our corporate filing fee which we received this past week. I called your Tallahassee office to explain that we never did receive the first notice, and the lady I talked to said that many people had reported the same problem. She suggested that I mail the enclosed, signed, second notice, along with the usual $150 fee to this address, which you would accept in lieu of the fee with penalty as prescribed in this second notice.

We are usually very prompt in paying any fees and taxes due for our corporation, as you will note from past records. My usual procedure is to forward any notices directly to our accountant, who reviews them to see if any information is needed and what fee to send. He did not receive the first notice from us either.

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Very sincerely,

Jeanne H. Tucker
President
