Re: K68250

Dear Sir or Madam:

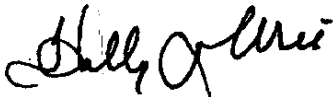

Enclosed please the 2004 UBR for the above-referenced account. However, there appears to be a problem with the account.

When we realized that we had not received the form and that it was the 30th, we went out online to see if we could file that way. What a surprise to see that the 15-year-old account was classified inactive! When we filed our report last year (copy attached), we provided a change of address; however, it appears that this change was never made to our account and that you have most likely gotten everything returned from the Post Office on this account since that time. This probably was further complicated by the fact that our checkbook was stolen May 3, 2003, and that our accounts were all cancelled as a result. (Copy of affidavit and police report also attached.)

Please advise how to handle as we are, and have always been, an active corporation. In the meantime, this year's $150 is enclosed so that timely filing is credited to us.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Holly Urie
President

Re: K68250

Dear Ms. Bailey:

Per your letter (copy enclosed), our $165 reinstatement fee is attached. I've also included the photocopy 2004 Return since, as I indicated, we never received the most recent form. Thanks for helping with this problem...the stolen purse problem just keeps popping up over and over again, but hopefully this will be one of the last issues to straighten out.

Sincerely,

Holly Urie
President
