Dear Officer:

I was very surprised to receive a 2nd notice for filing my 1998 Annual Report since I thought I filed the report back in May of this year. I telephoned the number provided for verification of filing and was again surprised to learn that my corporation's annual report had still not been received.

Following the advice of the very helpful gentleman at your office, I am sending my report with this letter to you for consideration. I believe I filed the report timely, but to this date, the check that was with the report has not been cashed. I have enclosed a copy of my checkbook page where I wrote the original check.

I realized that this is far from conclusive proof that I filed timely, but I would appreciate your waiving of the late fee since I sincerely tried to comply with your filing deadlines.

As you officer instructed, I am sending another $150 check with the enclosed return. He said you would notify me if I am to be charged the $400 late fee.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

James Gray, President
Data Specialists, Inc.
